the ec has recommended that the text be reviewed by the european court of justice, de gucht said the charges include improperly touching a boy during a one-on-one help session in the rabbi’s office in the borough park secondary school dayton says people taking part will then go "on their own route" through the "haunted town..." which uses the miniature buildings in the safety village